WARSIIGHT

DEFENCE IN DEPTH

CPM Verlag proudly presents WARSIIGHT – a brand new European news organisation specialising in providing in-depth coverage of the most important stories in the world of defence and security. Staffed by a multiple-award-winning editorial team and contributors, our aim is very simple: to write the stories that deserve to be read. Operating under the auspices of our parent company CPM Verlag, Germany's leading defence and security information publisher, Warsight represents the company's international branch, aimed at providing coverage across Europe and beyond.

We operate as a small team, and our aim is to provide high-quality, in-depth news, insight, explainers, and analysis across a broad range of defence and security topics. We hope to share our deep passion for the world of defence with you, by taking complex topics and making them understandable while providing critical context to explain why they matter.

We sincerely hope you as readers enjoy taking this journey with us!

THE EDITORIAL TEAM

Mark and Pete form the core WAR SIGHT editorial team. The two have known each other since their days at Janes, where Mark was a senior analyst on the land warfare team, and Pete was the editor-in-chief of Janes Defence Weekly. After they left Janes, the pair began working together as the editorial team for European Security & Defence. Here, the two found their respective skill sets to be highly complementary, garnering acclaim for their work, and recognition for their publication. After three years, the two decided to launch a news organisation, with a greater focus on in-depth storytelling and analysis, and a more selective approach to news. Thus Warsight was born.
